

Frédéric Torrea

Corporate Secretary and General Counsel

Frédéric Torrea holds a Masters in Business Law (DEA en Droit des Affaires) from the Toulouse Law University and a Masters in Political Science with an emphasis on economy and finance from Institut d'Etudes Politiques de Toulouse.

In 1991, he was hired as lawyer by Aerospatiale - Systems and Services - and, after three years, took responsibility of the Cooperation Department in this business unit.

In 1996, Frédéric Torrea joined WorldSpace Inc., a company operating a digital radio broadcasting satellite system, first as lawyer at the company's headquarters in Washington D.C., then as President of WorldSpace France, the French subsidiary of WorldSpace Inc.

Frédéric Torrea re-joined the Airbus group at the end of 2001 as Senior Lawyer for Airbus S.A.S., mainly acting as counsel for aircraft-related procurement activities covering various practice areas such as contracts law and intellectual property law. As from the end of 2006, he took responsibility of the Airbus Procurement Contracts Department consisting of contract specialists negotiating the main procurement agreements and mastering contractual risks.

In February 2009, Frédéric Torrea was appointed as ATR General Counsel and also is the company's Export Control Officer and International Compliance.

Frédéric Torrea was born in Oloron-Sainte-Marie, France. He is married and has a daughter.

In Charge Of:

- Legal Affairs
- Export Control
- International Compliance

